Marathi Bhasha Gaurav Din

SRBS has been celebrating 'Marathi Bhasha Gaurav Din' every year on 27th February in order to promote and popularize Marathi language amongst all stakeholders. It is the birth anniversary of Gyanpeeth award winner poet late V. V. Shirwadkar. The organizing committee had to prepare especially as the event was conducted in a virtual environment in the backdrop of Covid-19 pandemic. The event began at 2.00 pm on 27th February 2021 with Saraswati Vandana. Students of MMS , BMS and BAMMC – First and Second Year – showed keen interest and actively participated in different competitions like Online Quiz Contest, Poem Competition, Social media Picture Contest, Essay Competition and Best Marathi Attire. The Director, Dr. Vijay Wagh, in his address, urged everyone to take pride in rich Marathi literature and consciously work toward promoting Marathi in daily life. The 90 minute program generated tremendous excitement.

The event was compered by Ms. Gautami Shinde, Ms. Bhavna Pachpute and Ms. Rajsi Kinjalaskar. Students enjoyed the quiz conducted by Vikram Bedekar.
